Information on American Pilots Same as TFR169

[TFR 191-1]

[Same as TFR 169]

Some Information on American fliers

1. Filip Nil Batler [Handwritten Butler], Captain, born in California, wife lives in California, mother and sister live in Oklahoma, daughter - Diana.

Flew a "Skyhawk" off the aircraft carrier "Midway", shot down in 1965 over Nge An province.

Was presented to foreign journalists in June of 1965.

2. Gajdn [Hayden?] Lockhart, Springfield, Ohio. His wife Jill lives in Alexandria, Virginia.

Flew a "F-100" fighter, shot down in March-April 1965 in Kuang Bin' province. Crashed in Le Tkhyui district.

Member of Major Robert F. Ronk's squadron.

3. On June 1, 1965, propeller driven "AD-5" reconnaissance plane was shot down over the village of Ben Nge, Than' Whoa province. The plane crashed into the ground, the entire crew of four died. They are possibly buried at the same location.

4. The 300th (according to Vietnamese statistics) American plane was shot down on redacted(3) over Vin'. The flier was buried at the crash site. Only the last name [redacted] [Handwritten in English [redacted]] (b)(3) was written on the marker on the burial mound.

5. In June 1966, a "F-105 D" ([Handwritten in English] F-105D) fighter-bomber from the 303d Fighter-Bomber squadron based at Tatli [Takhli airbase] Thailand was shot down over Hanoi. The pilot, Captain Merfi, Nil Dzhoj, was born on January 3, 1938 in Louisiana. He ejected and was captured in the suburbs of Hanoi.

6. Robinson Rajsner [Risner], born in 1925 in Oklahoma, Korean War veteran, was shot down in the province of Than' Whoa on September 16, 1965. In June of 1965 [he] was presented [shown] to journalists.